Administration

Dear Class of 1993:

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the Mt. St. Joseph Academy Alumni.

Throughout your years at the Academy you have heard many messages from teachers and friends. Today, I take this opportunity to repeat a few ideas which I pray that you will take with you into life after high school.

First, accept yourself as you are, a uniquely gifted, talented person who walks daily on the path to greater growth, wholeness and holiness.

Secondly, remember that you are made in the image and likeness of God and are called to eternal happiness with Him even as you are invited to peace and quiet joy now.

Lastly, remind yourself often that God knows you. He has known you always, and He will know you always. There is nothing you can do to cause Him to leave you. He is steadfast. He is faithful. He loves you with a gratuitous, everlasting love.

Remember the Mt. St. Joseph Academy community experience which was made possible for you through the efforts of so many people. In your new alumni role, be generous in your support of the Mount. Help us to keep this experience available to everyone. We will remind you and invite you to stay with us, through the Newsletter every few months. Keep in touch with us.

You have become very special to me. I will miss you. You will remain in my prayer and in my heart.

Walk tall, Mountie women and men. You are the new ambassadors of M.S.J.

Love and prayer,

Mounties Shut Out Wilmi

WILMINGTON — Mount St. Joseph qualified for the Division II girls' soccer tournament Thursday afternoon with a 2-0 win over Wilmington in a Marble Valley League game.

Amanda Johnson and Stephanie Pisanelli scored the Mountie goals in the first half. MSJ is 6-6, while Wilmington slipped to 4-4.

"We're ecstatic. We had a great ride home—a long one but a great one. They've come out of nowhere the last couple of games," said first-year Mounties coach Tim Cassidy.

MSJ notched its second straight shutout.

CLARINO — The Mount St. Academy Mounties overcame 35 yards in penalties, three and a horrible weather to secure a 25-7 victory over the Burlington Seahorses in Division I football action at a slick and sloppy Hard Field on Saturday.

"It was an ugly day, I'll take an ugly win," said MSJ coach Brian Kelly. "At this point in the year, it really doesn't matter how pretty it is as long as it's a win."

The win ups MSJ to 2-5 on the season, while Burlington fell to 0-7.

RUTLAND — After the Mount St. Joseph football team lost its first two league games, the coaching staff let it in on a couple of predictions.

"First, we said that no one in Division I would go undefeated," said coach Brian Grady, "and number two, if we keep working hard, something good would happen."
